

Salt and Light for the King

Review

- Work and Rest
- Vocation
- Ethics of Work
- Trials and Temptations of Work
- Integrating Faith and Work

Vocational Stewardship

Blooming Where You're Planted (Jer 29:1-7)

Promoting God's Kingdom in your daily work

Ethics

Excellence

Evangelism

Functional daily reliance on the Holy Spirit

Seeking the interests of others

Intellectual hospitality

Treatment of coworkers

Intercessory prayer

Temptations: Pietism, Triumphalism

Donating Time and Talent (Esther 4)

Capitalizing on vocational power

Strengthen an organization with your talents

Temptation: Impatience and arrogance, loss of sheep

Social Enterprise (Neh 2)

Temptation: Failure to listen or partner

Church Investment

Targeted intense investment

Temptation: Minister to rather than with

Discussion

What does faith look like in your vocation?

What, in your primary field of work makes you passionate enough to call you to be a positive influence?

How can we work with other Christians in our vocation toward a common purpose?

