

Proverbs 31:25 Discussion Questions

Strength and dignity are her clothing, and she laughs at the time to come.

Proverbs 31:25

1. What are the frogs in your life? In other words, what tasks do you have to be intentional to get done so they are not hanging over you?
2. How do you create margins in your life for the unexpected? Do you need to change anything so that you have more time for the unexpected?
3. What has stood out to you from your devotions this week? What has God been showing you?
4. Have you ever asked someone those questions? How do you record/remember what God is teaching you?
5. When are you tempted by immediate gratification? What can you do to grow in the ability to choose what is best, even when it is not the easiest?
6. What are your schedule non-negotiables? What have you committed yourself to in your schedule?
